Comments for ECON115105_2015S_STATISTICS - Lauren Hoehn

What are the strengths of this course?

Comment
The teacher is extremely helpful because she always summarizes what we learned before we move on as a result of everything being connected.
The fact that the class was small really helped my learning experience. Also the notes she provided the class for each chapter were awesome.
The strengths of this course were contingent upon Lauren's ability to teach very well and effectively. She was very understanding and interested in the technique to which we were digesting statistics. Other professors may only lecture but Lauren had us understanding statistics in a fostering manner. Despite the course's arduousness, Lauren did not make it any easier. Instead she inspired us to take on the challenge and learn to love the complexity that is stats.
easy
There are many applications of the concepts.
Very well organized, learned a lot conceptually
small class size
Instructor..very well organized. Review sessions
One of the best teachers I have had at Boston College. Truly cares about her students, always available to help!
Lauren was always there for questions both in and outside of class and always responded promptly and on time.
Professor
Instructor taught with clear explanations and made difficult subject matter comprehensible.
Small and interactive

How could the instructor improve the course?

Comment
The instructor teaches the course perfectly.
The only thing that could be done to improve the course is probably slow down a little when lecturing. Other than that everything was great.
It would be hard to improve this course, but I believe that there may be a better book out there to demonstrate the concepts when students go home to read.
make it harder and more interesting
Don't read so much off of the notes.
I'm still unclear why AP Stats students (with 5s on the APs) have to take statistics courses; it gives them an unfair advantage and the statistics discussions/labs are not really that valuable.
More frequent hw

With experience I believe she will get better but was a great lecturer.

Would you recommend this course to other students, majors, etc.? Why or why not?

Comment
I would definitely recommend this to any students who think that statistics for Econ is going to be difficult, because she actually cares if you learn the intuition behind it.
Yes, I learned a great deal of statistics for someone who has never taken a statistics class before. She is a great teacher and anyone can learn a lot from her.
Yes I would. It is a great course and needed for the major and Lauren provides a fresh and invigorating perspective.

no
yes. it is interesting to see how analysis is done.
Yes, loved this professor! She tried to make it as easy as possible for us to learn.
Yes absolutely, Lauren is one of the nicest professors I've had at BC. She definitely wants you to succeed and is always very willing to help you. Great teacher
Yes - great teacher
Yes!!! Professor Hoehn is very approachable and welcoming at all times. She is willing to answer all the questions that students have until they all understand the material thoroughly. She gives advices of how to study well for this course and her notes are great. Her tests are straight-forward and very fair. Even though the materials could sometimes be boring and dry, she makes them interesting by giving us different examples and different ways to approach them. Overall, she is a great professor!
Yes, best statistic professor by far!
Yes. Lauren's class was clear and concise, teaching about statistics and helped me to understand the material thoroughly while making it an enjoyable class
Yes.
Yes, instructor was fabulous
yes
